

Minutes of the Fat Hen Inc.
Monday 2 May 2005

Present: Gary, Vanessa and Mel
Apologies: Rowena, Paula and Melissa

Confirmed Previous Minutes

1. Penelope Swales was a great night and all went well.
2. Discussed events that the Fat Hen could be involved in. For example, Reconciliation Week (27 May – 3 June) and Sorry Day (26 May) where will seek permission and fly the Aboriginal Flag.
Action: Mel to contact Sunraysia Daily to explore the idea that businesses who wish to comment or pay respect to Sorry Day could do so through a spread in the newspaper.
3. Funraiser
To celebrate the third birthday of Organics on Eleventh is was AGREED to hold another Winter Solstice Celebration. So pop this in your diary.
18 June at 5pm onwards. BYO chair, blanket, drinks and a plate.

A raffle will be drawn on the night. So purchase a ticket to win a fantastic organic hamper.
4. Catering
On Friday, 6 May we will be catering for the Australian College of Midwives, Mildura sub-branch. Help is appreciated for this event.
5. Done to Business
The shop has done extremely well in the last two weeks, maybe due to the ad in the mid-week, where all four shops did a promo for 11th Street shops at only $50 each.
6. Flyers
Gary S to re-design.
7. Maintenance
Landlady is going to fix the back door.
8. Wishlist
Shelving
Car
9. Events
Wildspaces is happening again this year as a touring show. Dates still to be confirmed as well as venue. Fat Hen will host and cater for this event. Planning needs to be done so any help, suggestions appreciated.

Fair Trade promotion is happening on 7 May for a fortnight. We will display Jasper Coffee, chocolates, tea, coconut oil etc and there will be specials for these items over the 2 weeks.

Next Meeting: Monday, 6 June 2005 at 7.30pm
